

Changes to wearing Face Coverings

People First
(Scotland)

New changes to wearing face coverings will happen on Saturday 8th August.

You must now wear a face covering in most indoor settings.

This can be a face mask or a scarf over your nose and mouth.

Visors are no longer allowed as a face covering.

This is because new evidence shows that they do not work as well as masks that cover the mouth and nose.

Places where you have to wear a face covering:

People First
(Scotland)

Shops and shopping centres

Aquariums, indoor zoos and visitor farms

Cinemas

Community centres

Crematoriums and funeral directors

People First
(Scotland)

Libraries and public reading rooms

Museums and galleries

Places of worship such as churches and mosques

Post offices

Places where you do not have to wear a face covering:

People First
(Scotland)

Restaurants and cafes

Pubs and bars

Banks and credit unions

People with certain health conditions and disabilities do not have to wear a mask.

This includes people with Dementia, Autism and, or a Learning Disability.

It is best to wear a mask if you can.
